NiSource Gas Transmission & Storage Announces Commercial Services Organizational Changes

HOUSTON, November 8, 2010–NiSource Gas Transmission & Storage (NGT&S) announced today organizational changes within its commercial operations. Effective Monday, November 8, 2010, Brian Adams, vice president business development, assumes the newly-created position of vice president and general manager, marketing and supply, located in Houston, reporting to Senior Vice President Commercial Operations, Colin Harper. Adams will lead the marketing area as NGT&S focuses on a three-pronged business strategy in the major market areas of the Mid-Atlantic, the Northeast and Ohio, on contract renewals, and power generation. He will also lead the supply area as NGT&S continues to build new supply-related facilities in the Marcellus Shale play and coordinate those efforts with the company’s new midstream affiliate, NiSource Midstream Service, LLC.

Adams is a 26-year veteran of NGT&S, beginning his career in accounting in 1984. He moved into a supply and marketing role at Columbia of Virginia before taking on a marketing role with Columbia Gas Transmission in 1989. Adams’s most recent role in business development began in 2008, focusing on company partnerships with Millennium Pipeline and Hardy Storage.
